

Lesson Plan Stipends & Master Teacher Award Submission Information

Thank you for attending our event and for sharing your inspiration with us in your lesson plan. Read the following award and submission information carefully. Feel free to contact us if you have any questions. You can use the online Google form at the bottom of this document to submit your lesson, or email your submission to us as one complete PDF. We are pleased that you are willing to pursue further professional growth opportunities and we are excited to see what you send in! Have fun with this project!

Sincerely, Prairie Public Education Services Staff

Stipend Information

Applicants must attend a PD For Me Workshop, or a MN Service Cooperative PD Day, or another event that qualifies with prior approval. If your class or school is doing something unique or innovative, we want to hear about it! We are excited to showcase the great ways teachers are empowering students to learn, how students are apply what they are learning in real-life situations, and school / community collaborations.

Teachers who successfully submit all required materials within one month from the date of the event will be considered for the stipend. Lesson Plans must include the following criteria:

- 1) Demonstrates excellence in student engagement, content, and/or use of technology.
- 2) Relates to the content, techniques, tips, or training provided at the event you attended.
- 3) Features PBS, NPR, and/or Prairie Public resources as a significant part of the lesson.
- 4) Contains arts or cultural heritage learning objectives, either as the main subject matter or as a supplemental cross-curricular activity. *

A $75 stipend will be awarded to select Lesson Plans based on the above criteria. A limited number of stipends will be given, based on the quality of the lesson plan and event budgets. Those teachers selected to receive the stipend will be notified no later than two months from the date of the event. Please make sure the address you list is where you would like to receive the stipend, should your lesson be chosen.

Master Teacher Award Information

Prairie Public Education Services will choose a limited number of teachers from a series of events to be considered for the Master Teacher Award. This award will be based on an exceptional lesson plan which, in addition to meeting the criteria above, also reflects a creative, innovative use of PBS materials, and includes new knowledge, skills, or techniques inspired by the events attended. The Master Teacher will earn a $150 stipend and will be publicly recognized for their excellence through various media platforms. These teachers will also be considered for additional partnership and professional development opportunities with Prairie Public Education Services.
